

Contact: Sheila Boxley
(916) 244-1976

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 18, 2008

Needy Families Grateful for “Assist” from Sacramento Kings Players

Sacramento Kings Players Garcia, Jackson and Martin bring Christmas cheer to local families through Child Abuse Prevention Center donations

SACRAMENTO — Three generous Sacramento Kings Players — Francisco Garcia, Bobby Jackson and Kevin Martin — temporarily traded in their high tops for Santa Hats this week by personally donating a sleigh-full of toys and clothing through the Child Abuse Prevention Council’s “Parent Led Assistance Network” (PLAN) — gifts that will make Christmas a lot merrier for ten very needy Sacramento families.

“We’re truly grateful for the kindness and generosity of these players — who have demonstrated that it truly is better to give than to receive,” said President and CEO of the Child Abuse Prevention Center Sheila Boxley. “Their thoughtfulness embodies the spirit of giving this holiday season and we hope that their kindness will be an inspiration to others. We thank them from the bottom of our hearts.”

To help bring a brighter Christmas to local families in need, please visit www.thecapcenter.org

About the Child Abuse Prevention Center:

Located in Sacramento, California, the Child Abuse Prevention Center is a 24,000 square-foot state-of-the-art training, resource and administrative facility. The CAP Center’s mission is to prevent child abuse, neglect, and abandonment.

#