

Contact: Sheila Boxley
(916) 244-1900

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 5, 2009

Get a Wiggle on for Inspirations 2009
— it's Gonna be the Bee's Knee's, Baby

Flappers and dappers to raise funds for The Child Abuse Prevention Center

SACRAMENTO — Harkening back to America's early days of prosperity and optimism, The Child Abuse Prevention Center is hosting a Roaring 20s-style dinner to raise funds for children very much in need of hope and optimism.

“Of course, this event is all about the kids — but why not inspire the whole community to cut loose and reminisce about a more prosperous time in our history,” said Sheila Boxley. “So grab your top hats and pearls, and ‘put on the ritz’ to help the more than 140,000 children served each year by The Child Abuse Prevention Center. You won’t want to miss it.”

Not only will this year's Inspirations Dinner be held at the “Jewels on J” — the Elks Tower and new Citizen Hotel, both major historic “hot spots” of the 1920s — but also will boast flashing cameras along an elegant red carpet, classic jalopies and nifty get-ups from a glitzy, glamorous time in our history. And as always, the event will feature dozens of breathtaking and unique table-top décor by the region's hottest designers.

What: “Inspirations 2009: Jewels on J” — Benefitting The Child Abuse Prevention Center

When/Where: Friday, May 15
7 - 10 PM — Dinner at the refurbished Elks Tower
10 - 1 AM — After Party at The Citizen Hotel

Contact: Cindy Mills at (916) 244-1912 or cmills@thecapcenter.org for sponsor tables and tickets.

#

