

“We were lost coming to a new country not knowing the culture or language when we first arrived.

We started to regret leaving our home after seeing the barriers we were facing but being connected to such an organization with caring individuals has given us hope that things will be okay, and we will eventually adjust and make this new place our home.

This organization has given me and my family the hope that there are people and places out there ready to help those who are in need.”